CHAPTER-1: Introduction

1.2 SYSTEM DETAILS

1.2.1 EXISTING SYSTEM

- If a person wants to get some news about the world, then they have to go need the newspaper. It is very long process.
- First to buy the newspaper and then to go through every page of the paper.
- Due to newspaper, we can't get news instant.
- Poorly print limits creativity.
- Delivery expensive may be expensive.

1.2.2 PROPOSED SYSTEM

- Electronic publication is much cheaper than printing, and the website would require minimal maintenance. Although there are initial costs of developing a website, these would be offset over time.
- A website would reduce paper usage and produce no litter.
- Also, every update news will come to them directly. The updates will appear to their feeds automatically.

1.3 SCOPE OF THE SYSTEM

- The scope of the system is depended on the service that system provides targeted audience and how the system is going to be served.

- Now the technology updating and digitalization is growing on all the things are available online. All type of material for reading are available online using website. So we are also going to make a news website to get news online.
- Our system will provide news to the users online through our website no need to pay any amount to read it. News will given 24 hours at a time of happening to an incident.
- Our system is online so everyone can access it and news will be from all over the world.

1.4 OBJECTIVE

- News offers the information to the public, politics, social, sports, health, entertainment, etc.
- Those people who don't have the time to read the news paper and always linked with the internet can get more information.
- Professionally publish online news publication, corporate press releases, or manage other content without technical expertise.
- The website provides the news services to the users where user can see the news and read the news as per their needs.
- Main objective of the system is to provide the latest news and on accurate time.

CHAPTER-3: SYSTEM MANAGEMENT AND PLANING

3.1 Feasibility Study

3.1.1 Technical Study

- ENEWS system is web-based application. The main technology and tools which are used in this website are: -
  - HTML
  - CSS
  - Java Script
  - Bootstrap
  - PHP
  - MYSQL
- Each of this technology are freely available and manageable. All technology are easy of implementing using these technology.
- Hardware and software both are available with no cost.
- As per this all we can say that our system is minimal or low cost required to develop and maintain also.

3.1.2 Economical Study

- Technologies which are used open source and there is no cost for development process also.
- As there is open-source technologies we are using so the software buying cost is not added.
- There is no cost for managing the system once it is developed.
- This system free for all the users there is no cost for reading a news it is absolutely free.

- New news will be updated time to time from admin.
- No special hardware or software required for the system.
- So we can say that our system is economical feasible.

3.1.3 Operational Study

1. We also provides support from our side if the admin gets stocked into issue or problem.
2. The entire system will be generated under win-win principles, it means we will understand to client and also to our business.
3. Our system will provide news service without login process and single rupees.
4. Our system will must secure.
5. Our overall system will be handle by admin.
6. Our planning also contains owner and other member which are correspond to system.
7. Our system will be user friendly to each and every.
